

GAA

- The Gaelic Athletic Association (GAA) is Ireland's largest organisation.
- It is celebrated as one of the greatest amateur associations in the world.
- It is part of the Irish consciousness and plays an influential role in Irish society that extends far beyond the basic aim of promoting Gaelic games.

Introduction

- There are four main GAA sports Gaelic , Hurling , Hand ball and Rounders. The GAA has over 2,000 clubs in Ireland with another 300 clubs over seas. The headquarters of the GAA is Croke Park.

History

- On November 1st 1884 the Gaelic athletic association also known as the GAA was founded in Thurles Co . Tipperary. It was founded by a man named Micheal Cusack he actually has a stand named after him in Croke park.

Why I chose GAA

- I chose the GAA because I am familiar with the sports and activities associated with it. I play Gaelic and hurling. I like playing rounders with my friends but I never played at competitive level.

By Oliver McVeigh

Conclusion

- So as you can see the GAA isn't just a few games it is a big organisation with very competitive sports.

Thank you for watching my project
Finn Carter